The history you're about to read, is an incomplete history, but does show a Palestinian .. history prior to the Kingdom of Israel and the Roman Empire, and that Palestine existed through history. The purpose is to get you search more, and to understand that the history portrayed by Western Media isn't at all accurate

BCE – Before Christ Era

BCE I Land of “Peleset” referred to in numerous Egyptian hieroglyphics, referring 1150 – to their neighbors during the 20th dynasty. First mention was in the texts at the temple of Medinet Habu referring to the “Sea People during Ramesses III reign

BCE I The Assyrians called them the Palashtu or Pilistu. There were references to 800 – .them for over a century

5th century BCE I Herodotus wrote about Palaistine in The Histories^ In his work, – Herodotus referred to the practice of male circumcision associated with the Hebrew people: "the Colchians, the Egyptians, and the Ethiopians, are the only nations who have practised circumcision from the earliest times. The Phoenicians and the Syrians of Palestine themselves confess that they learnt the custom of the Egyptians.... Now these are the only nations who use circumcision." The History of Herodotus

Beloe, W., Rev., Herodotus, (tr. from Greek), with notes, Vol.II, London, 1821, ^ p.269 "It should be remembered that Syria is always regarded by Herodotus as synonymous with Assyria. What the Greeks called Palestine the Arabs call Falastin, which is the Philistines of Scripture." ^ Elyahu Green, Geographic names of places in Israel in Herodotos

This is confirmed by George Rawlinson in the third book (Thalia) of The Histories where Palaestinian Syrians are part of the fifth tax district spanning the territory from Phoenicia to the borders of Egypt, but excludes the kingdom of Arabs who were exempt from tax for providing the Assyrian army with water on its march to Egypt. These people had a large
.city called Cadytis, identified as Jerusalem

4th century BCE | Aristotle wrote about the Dead Sea in Palestine in his book, –
,Meteorology

Again if, as is fabled, there is a lake in Palestine, such that if you bind a man or" beast and throw it in it floats and does not sink, this would bear out what we have said. They say that this lake is so bitter and salt that no fish live in it and that if you soak clothes in it and shake them it cleans them," – an obvious
.reference to the Dead Sea

Later writers such as Polemon, and Pausanias also used the term to refer to the same region. This usage was followed by Roman writers such as Ovid, Tibullus, Pomponius Mela, Pliny the Elder,[15] Statius, as well as Roman-era Greek writers such as Plutarch, Dio Chrysostom and Roman-era Judean writers such as Philo of Alexandria[16] and
.Josephus

CE – Christ Era

CE I After the Bar Kokhba Revolt, the Romans called it Syria Palaestina 135 – are pretty much (פלשתי) and the name Philistine (פלשת) In Hebrew, the name Palestine .the same, and Philistine literally means One Of Palestine

The Philistines are descendants of the Casluhim, who were sons of Mizraim, .(son of Ham, son of Noah (Genesis 10:14

Peleshet (פלשת) – usually translated as Philistia in English, is used in the Bible (פִּלִּשְׁתִּי) – more than 250 times

In the Torah / Pentateuch the term is used 10 times and its boundaries are undefined. – The later Historical books (see Deuteronomistic history) include most of the biblical references, almost 200 of which are in the Book of Judges and the Books of Samuel, where the term is used to denote the southern coastal region to the west of the ancient .Kingdom of Judah

1500s

As for the early population of Palestine, even the Jewish Virtual Library (Click for resource) puts the Jewish population at less than 2% in 1517

According to the founder of Israel's Central Bureau of Statistics Roberto Bachi there were :

.Muslims, 11 000 Christians and only 2 000 Jews in the year 1690 000 219

So Muslims were the vast majority. Even by each Palestinian city, you can see that. In the middle of the 16th century for example Hebron had 749 Muslim taxable households to only 20 Jewish. Jerusalem had 7,287 Muslims and only 1,363 Jews. Nablus 806 Muslim households to only 15 Jewish. Safed had 1,121 Muslim households to 716 Jewish (Jewish .(community of Safed was just formed at that time of Jewish refugees from Spain

SHAKESPEARE

.. There are also references to "Palestine" in Shakespeare. In Othello, Act 4, scene 3

I know a lady in Venice would have walked bare-foot to Palestine for a touch of" his nether lip". In King John, Act 2, Scene 1, "fought Holy Wars in Palestine".

Othello was written between 1601 and 1604. King John Was written in

.1594–1596

1800s

As early as 1882 Ben-Yehuda and Yehiel Michal Pines, Zionist pioneers in Palestine, .talked about 500 000 Arabs living in Palestine

Ahad Ha'am, the founder of cultural Zionism, visited Palestine in 1891 and described it as Arab developed land. The founder of Israel David Ben Gurion, spoke about Arab farmers as descendants of ancient Hebrews. Michael Bar-Zohar, Ben-Gurion's official biographer, said that Palestine was not an empty land, and the Jews were only a small minority of its .population a b Robinson, Edward, Physical geography of the Holy Land, Crocker & Brewster, ^ Boston, 1865, p.15. Robinson, writing in 1865 when travel by Europeans to the Ottoman ,Empire became common asserts that Palestine, or Palestina, now the most common name for the Holy Land, occurs" three times in the English version of the Old Testament; and is there put for the elsewhere rendered Philistia. As thus used, it refers strictly ,פלשת Hebrew name and only to the country of the Philistines, in the southwest corner of the land. So, too, in the Greek form, Παλαστίνη), it is used by Josephus. But both Josephus and Philo apply the name to the whole land of the Hebrews ; and ".Greek and Roman writers employed it in the like extent

1910s | Battle of Nablus

American author and Professor of Political Science Alan Dowty put it best when he wrote ..

Palestinians are the descendants of all the indigenous peoples who lived in"

".Palestine over the centuries

Moreover, studies suggest, that part, if not the majority of Arabs living in Palestine,
.descend from a core population that dates back thousands of years

Filastin was a daily newspaper published from 1911–1967 in Palestine. Published from Jaffa, the principal publishers (who edited and owned the paper) were Issa El-Issa and his cousin Yousef El-Issa. Both El-Issas were Greek Orthodox, opponents of British administration, and supporters of pan-Arab unity. The paper supported the Committee of .Union and Progress, opposed Zionism, and promoted Palestinian nationalism Aref Al-Dajani President of the Palestine Arab Congress, (also president of the I 1919 Jerusalem Christian-Muslim Society). Also part of the Executive Committee were Izzat Darwaza and Yusef al-'Isa, editor of paper Falastin, the newspaper of Palestine. (So (.much for an invented people

.April – Palestine Arab Party established

.June – Reform Party (Palestine) established 23

.April – The Arab Higher Committee is established, on the initiative of the Mufti of 25 – 1935 .Jerusalem Hajj Amin al-Husayni, to oppose British rule and Jewish claims in Palestine

Palestine Arab Revolt for Independence against the British. Palestinian – 1936–1939 (Arabs –Arab Higher Committee (until October 1937

Central Committee of National Jihad in Palestine (from October 1937) 1 in 10 Palestinian adults were murdered by the British and led to greater support for the Zionist immigration and division of Palestine. Palestine was lead by city leaders during this time. Each city .had its own leader and coordinated attacks against the British

.From 1939–1948 Britain and Palestinians fought

Zionist immigration expands dramatically, most of the Kibbutzes are founded. thousands
.of Palestinians are murdered and most Palestinian villages are destroyed

Jewish women were pressured and used to spy and to curry favor with British soldiers during the mandate period. These women were later persecuted, ousted from Israeli society, kidnapped and murdered by Jewish extremist groups who didn't know these women were forced into these relationships by those working for Israel. (Watch: Daniela Riche: Miscegenation in Mandatory Palestine on Youtube)

Jewish villages were built in the place of Arab villages. You do not even know“ the names of these Arab villages, and I do not blame you because geography books no longer exist. Not only do the books not exist, the Arab villages are not there either. Nahlal arose in the place of Mahlul; Kibbutz Gvat in the place of Jibta; Kibbutz Sarid in the place of Huneifis; and Kefar Yehushua in the place of Tal al-Shuman. There is not a single place built in this country that did not have a former Arab population.”– David Ben Gurion, quoted in The Jewish Paradox, by Nahum Goldmann, Weidenfeld and Nicolson, 1978, p. 99”

We will expel the Arabs and take their place. In each attack a decisive blow" should be struck resulting in the destruction of homes and expulsion of the population.” David Ben Gurion, Letter to his son, 1937

We came here to a country that was populated by Arabs and we are building" here a Hebrew, a Jewish state; instead of the Arab villages, Jewish villages were established. You even do not know the names of those villages, and I do not blame you because these villages no longer exist. There is not a single Jewish settlement that was not established in the place of a former Arab Village." Moshe Dyan, March 19, 1969, speech at the Technion in Haifa, quoted .in Ha'aretz, April 4, 1969
