

Zionist Massacres – The Fakahani massacre I Beirut

The Fakhani building, targeted by the occupation's planes, housed offices for the Palestine Liberation Organization and the Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine, as well as residential apartments. This led to the martyrdom of hundreds, including many women and children. Among the martyrs were the Iraqi Tha'ira Fakhri Butrus, the French nurse Nicolas Rawayeh (François), and the .(Tunisian activist Mohamed Sassi (Giyab al-Tunisi

The Fakahani massacre | Beirut - صور

Born from Death" | On the day of the "Fakhani massacre in Beirut on July 17, 1981, Lebanese martyr Fatima Al-Saghir, who was nine months pregnant, attempted to escape the "Israeli" bombing but couldn't survive. However, the shrapnel that struck her abdomen led to the birth of her child, saving the girl. Her .father named her Palestine

British artist Vanessa Redgrave visits the ruins of the buildings in Fakhani, which were bombed by the occupation planes and housed offices for the Palestine Liberation Organization and the Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine, as well as residential apartments, resulting in the martyrdom of hundreds, including many women and .children

