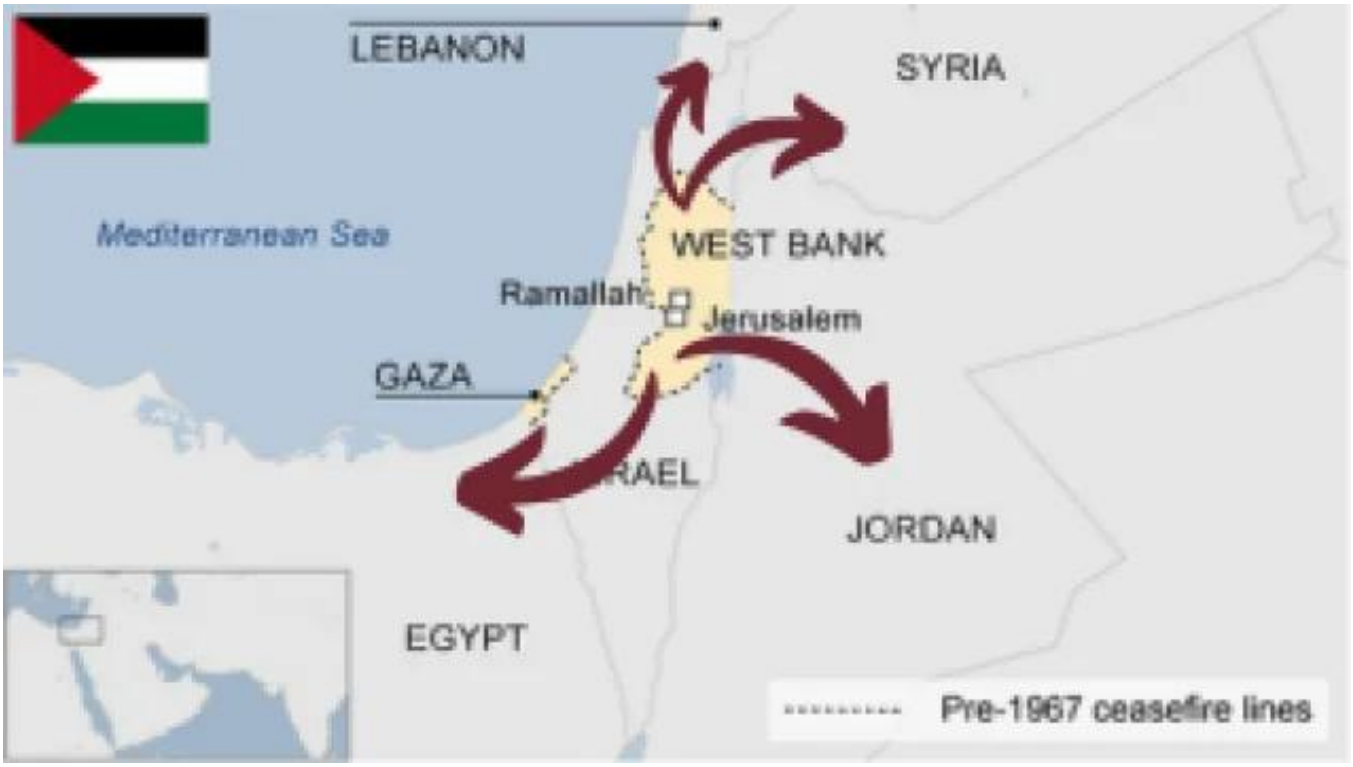
Why not Move to Any Other Arab Country?



Let me answer that question with another ..

Would you leave your home for me because I don't have another home? Or worse, I come to you armed and order you to leave your home.

But to give you a plain simple answer, this is not valid because Palestinians are not only Muslims, and they don't have any other safe country to move to. Claiming that all Arab countries are just Muslim countries or that all Arabs are the same is racist. There are many countries that Jews can move to. Claiming that all Jews and all Jewish sects are the same is also false.

It's very ironic to ask why Palestinians don't move to another country, but don't demand the relocation of Jews to any other? If your claim or answer is that the land is considered Jewish, so it should only go to the "Jewish people" or the "promised people" - please refer to the article: Judaism before Islam, so surely the land is Jewish and a right to Jews.
