

UNRWA School's Massacre | Beit Hanoun

On July 24, 2014, Israeli forces committed a massacre against displaced people from border areas in northern Gaza. These individuals sought refuge in a UNRWA school to protect themselves from Israeli bombardment. Israel bombed the school with bombs, resulting in the martyrdom of 16 civilians and the injury of 200 others, mostly elderly, women, and children.