

The Wehdaa 'Unity' Street massacre | (Abu Uuf family)

The bombardments conducted by the Israeli military aircraft from 1:00 to 2:10 in the morning targeted multiple locations in the city of Gaza. During these airstrikes, a building belonging to the Abu Al-Awf family located at the intersection of Churches Union Square on Unity Street, consisting of 4 floors with residential and commercial apartments, was hit without prior warning. The attack resulted in the tragic death of 24 people, mostly children and women.
