

El-Wehda street (The Unity St.) Massacre

Israeli warplanes carried out a large number of airstrikes from 1:00 to 2:10 a.m., targeting various locations in the city of Gaza. In these airstrikes, two residential buildings on Al-Wahda Street, each consisting of 4 floors, were hit. These buildings belonged to Amin Muhammad Al-Qoulq and Muayin Muhammad Al-Qoulq, located next to the Abu Al-Ouf building. The strikes resulted in the destruction of these buildings and the tragic loss of 18 lives from the same family.
