

The third Khan Yunis massacre

The massacre occurred on November 3, 1956, during the Zionist army's occupation of the town of Khan Yunis. Gunfire was opened on the residents of the town and the neighboring refugee camp, resulting in the martyrdom of 275 individuals from both the village and the camp.