Nabulsi Roundabout Massacre

The massacre was carried out by the "Israeli" air force at seven o'clock in the morning on Thursday, February 29, 2024, targeting queues of Gaza citizens who were waiting for humanitarian aid to arrive southwest of Gaza City at the intersection of Street 10 with Rashid Street - in the Al-Nablus roundabout area. This massacre left around 150 martyrs and up to a thousand injured and wounded.

The massacre took place during the genocidal war being waged by Zionist occupation forces on Gaza on the 146th day since the beginning of the Israeli aggression on the Gaza Strip, at seven o'clock in the morning on Thursday, February 29, 2024.

This massacre resulted in 150 martyrs and around 1000 injured and wounded, up until the moment of documenting this material. Some doctors at Kamal Adwan Hospital, where the wounded were transferred, have stated that they fear a large number of casualties among the injured and wounded due to the lack of necessary medical supplies and treatment for some critical and serious cases.
