

Beit Hanoun's Massacre

On November 8, 2006, Israeli forces shelled the town of Beit Hanoun in northern Gaza, resulting in the martyrdom of 20 people, including 13 from one family. More than 40 individuals, mostly women and children, were injured.