Kuwaiti Gorilla Fighter Fawzi Al-Majadi

نعي الجبهة الديموقراطية لتحرير فلسطين باستشهاد البطل فوزي المجادي

The Arab Unity | Kuwaiti Gorilla/Freedom Fighter Fawzi Al-Majadi (Philip) ("Gorilla Fighters" are individuals who participate in armed resistance against an occupying power or government) - He joined the Democratic Front in 1987 and was martyred along with his comrades Riyad Al-Sorouji (Jamal) and Hussein Ahmed (Abu Samar) during a fedayeen operation in the settlement of Maskav on June 4, 1989. The group, known as the "Nablus Martyrs, " succeeded in infiltrating a military barracks of the occupation forces.

They captured two soldiers before the occupation reinforced its forces and launched an attack on them supported by helicopter gunships, resulting in the killing of the soldiers and the martyrdom of the fedayeen.

The occupation authorities detained the martyrs' bodies.

The remains of the martyr Fawzi returned to Kuwait in July 2008 after a prisoner exchange operation conducted by Hezbollah with the occupation.
